

Accessing electronic information

Whilst the ability to search the Internet for information is not normally essential for most modules (other than for Research Dissertation) you may wish to use the worldwide web during your studies. You can access the University Library from the Internet and various international electronic databases to carry out searches for information. For this you will usually need your use your Athens identity (see above).

On your USB memory stick for each module there is a folder containing information provided by the library. However, you may prefer to seek help from the University Library's website.

Mediated searches, photocopying and postage

Note that there is a charge for mediated searches, photocopying and postage. Also, there are restrictions on the overseas loan of some items, and this may not be possible
